Leadership Arts Institute

Leadership Arts Institute Now Accepting Applications

Dallas, Texas- Business Council for the Arts (BCA) is now accepting applications for the 2015-2016 class of Leadership Arts Institute. The deadline for the competitive application process is August 1, 2015.

Leadership Arts Institute was founded in 1989 by notable philanthropist and business leader Ray Nasher, with the mission to train and develop the next generation of business leaders for the arts in North Texas.

The curriculum covers topics such as board roles and responsibilities, fundraising and development, arts advocacy, art and economics and more. This proven program provides participants with the tools and information that makes them “best in class” among board leaders.

Join companies as diverse as American Airlines, Beck, Frost Bank, Grant Thornton, Texas Instruments, Vinson & Elkins, and over 200 others that utilize LAI to enhance leadership skills and broaden community engagement of select employees.

This year Business Council for the Arts will be expanding the Leadership Arts Institute, to Collin and Denton Counties in addition to the Dallas –based program.

BCA will be hosting an informational session on LAI, Wednesday, July 15th at 6PM at Seasons 52 at the Shops at Legacy, Plano. To register, visit: <http://goo.gl/LqVIBi>.
