BUSINESS COUNCIL FOR THE ARTS ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD OF DIRECTORS
MEMBERS AND BOARD CHAIRMAN

NORTH TEXAS--Business Council for the Arts (BCA), now in its 35th year, is pleased to announce eight new board of directors' members and new Chairman of the BCA Board, Joel Austin, Senior Vice President and Chief Digital Officer for Oncor. Joel has served on the BCA board for eight years and is taking on the role of Chairman following Rick del Monte who retired from the BCA board and The Beck Group at the end of 2021.

New 2022 Board Members

BCA is delighted to share those eight North Texas business leaders that have joined BCA's tremendous board of directors with the beginning of 2022. We look forward to all that can be accomplished under such strong leadership.

Katherine Terrell Frank – Partner, Vinson & Elkins LLP
Dr. Karen Hutzel – Dean, College of Visual Arts & Design - University of North Texas
Brian Miller – Chief Design Officer – The Beck Group
Jessica Morris – VP of Accounting & Financial Reporting – Neiman Marcus Group
John Rich – Principle, PricewaterhouseCoopers
Lamonte Thomas – South Central Market President – Aetna
Rod Washington – Dallas Region President – Frost Bank

Thank you to Retiring Board Members

Many thanks to the following BCA board members retiring in 2021. We are grateful for your guidance, support and generosity as a BCA steward and thankful for your advocacy of business partnership with arts and culture as an avenue for innovation and wellbeing in the workplace and in communities. Rick del Monte (The Beck Group), Dr. Robert Dye (Comerica Bank), Thomas Leatherbury (Vinson & Elkins LLP), Pooja Singhanian (Capital One), Mimi Crume Sterling (Neiman Marcus Group) and Dr. Greg Watts (CVAD, UNT).

About Business Council for the Arts

Business Council for the Arts encourages, inspires, and stimulates businesses and municipalities to support the arts in the workplace, in education, and in the community. We are a connector between commerce and culture. Our programs bring wellness and equity into the workplace through the arts, develop next-generation business leaders for arts boards, inject creativity into work teams, measure the economic impact of the arts in North Texas, and enrich arts organizations with business best practices. Contact us at bca@ntbca.org for more information or visit our website at www.ntbca.org.
