

He Heard You!

Day after day,
I wait for you master,
I know in due time,
You will come with an answer.

Days are very tough,
No joy inside,
Everyone is gone,
But you are still by my side.

In fasting and prayer,
All this week,
Trusting in you care,
Thy will I seek.

God said;
Every words that you whispered,
Every tears that you shed,
Every moment that you were scared
Every pain that you endured,
Every insult that you suffered,
Reaches me even before it's said.
