

Adventured planned we loaded up.
were gonna do some awesome stuff
Clothes packed, too many maybe Someones pack was extra heavy.
Eyes peeled and bows at the ready.
Here we go nice and steady
We started down the long dusty trail.
but then the youths start to wail....

Are we there yet?
are we there yet?
ARE WE THERE YET!
I cant take it any more
I am oh so bored.
just plain and pure.
Oh please please please please tell.
how far we're from the hotel.
this trip will be the death of me.
I really really have to pee.
I dont care if it's behind a tree.
Or a delightful shrubbery.

oh suck it up
butter cup.
your out of luck.
As i live and breathe
its grass as far as the eye can see if we could teleport that would be amazing.

grow up become a wizard get studying.
then sure we could visit family in a day.
but until that happens , this is the only way
Wind blows hard its got a bite.
We hold our cloaks about us tight.
our transport rolls forth
even as our tempers run short.
But if you keep asking that I swear.
I'm gonna start ripping out my hair.

Are we there yet?
are we there yet?
ARE WE THERE YET!
I cant take it any more
I am oh so bored.
just plain and pure.
Oh please please please please tell.
how far we're from the hotel.
this trip will be the death of me.
I really really have to pee.
I dont care if it's behind a tree.
Or a delightful shrubbery.

This is how it continued late into the night.
laying down is gonna be such a delight.
cuz my ears will finally be free of this plight.
Are we there yet?
are we there yet?

ARE WE THERE YET!

yes

Yes!

Yes!

oh god bless!
