

*Me and You are just a fantasy Yeah, it feels real, but only to you and me What we do and how we feel, most only experience in a dream
But it is our reality
Like a story book or a beautiful sad love song
We climb peaks so high
The galaxy, the stars, the planets, we fly Together, hand in hand
Your eyes in mine
The time spent with you, I wish it didn't end We know it's real, into the night, but once it's day, the fantasy ends And I know that's why I run, and push you away*

*Because that reality wasn't made to see the light of day
It's in the night we heal, we learn, we reveal What it is to one another, why there is such an appeal
I yearn for you in the day, but if I hold tight, it'll soon be night And Together in our Fantasy we'll take flight*
